“ Liz, Margaret & Stephen,

I am so sorry for the loss of your sweet Dad. I have lots of fond memories with your family and will always appreciate your parents kindness and great senses of humor. They are surely together in heaven now watching over all of you and your children.

MaryAnn,

All my love is with you always. I know how much your brother meant to you. My prayer is for your peace in his loss.

Much Love to you all,

Kim Flanagan Montoya

“ Words could never express what Mr. Tom meant to our family and so many others. Even though not related by blood he was the only Grandfather my 3 sons have ever known. He litreally kept his door open if you needed to sit down and chit chat. He will be greatly missed and one of the greatest men we can say we were blessed to known. His memory will live own through all who knew him. We love you, Mr. Tom.
