

Trecia Faye Strickland-Jones

May 2, 1961 - March 29, 2025

With deep sorrow and heavy hearts, we announce the passing of our beloved Faye Jones, who left us peacefully on March 29, 2025, surrounded by the love and warmth of her family.

Faye was a devoted mother, a cherished sister, a loving daughter, and a true friend to all who knew her. Her life was a beautiful reflection of kindness, selflessness, and unconditional love.

As a mother, she poured her heart and soul into her children, always ensuring they felt valued, supported, and loved. She was their rock, their guide, and their biggest cheerleader. Her nurturing spirit created a home filled with laughter, love, and a sense of security that will forever be missed.

As a sister, Faye was a constant source of comfort and joy. Her bond with her siblings was one of deep understanding, unwavering loyalty, and shared memories that will last a lifetime. She had an ability to lift spirits with a smile and a kind word, making those around her feel truly special.

As a daughter, Faye was the embodiment of respect, devotion, and love. She held her family close, always looking out for their well-being and happiness, and offering her unwavering support. Her connection to her parents was a beautiful reminder of the power of family, and she was a loving reflection of the values they instilled in her.

To her many friends, Faye was a bright light—always there with a helping hand, an encouraging word, or a comforting presence. Her generosity knew no bounds, and her ability to make others feel seen and heard was a gift she gave to all.

Above all, Faye had a deep, unwavering faith in God. Her Christian beliefs were the cornerstone of her life, and she lived each day guided by love, compassion, and grace. She found strength in her relationship with the Lord, and her trust in His plan was evident in everything she did. Her faith was a source of comfort not only to her but to everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. She was a woman who believed in the power of prayer and always sought to share the light of Christ with others through her words and actions.

Faye was not only a wonderful woman but a beacon of love, strength, and grace. Her legacy will live on in the hearts of all those she touched, and her memory will forever be a guiding light. She leaves behind a family and a community who will carry her spirit in everything they do.

In her passing, Faye is now at peace with her Lord and Savior, reunited with loved ones who have gone before her, including Billy Macon Strickland (Father), Tamra Robin Strickland (Sister), and Vicky Elaine Strickland Tobell (Sister). She is following the example of faith and love set by Christ, knowing that He has welcomed her home with open arms.

Faye leaves behind her beloved children, Joel Jones, Laura Faye Jones, Linda Kaye Jones, who will continue to carry her spirit and values in their hearts, former husband, Lawrence Norman Jones, as well as her loving Mother, Anne Strickland, her sister, Kathy Browning, and twin, Kaye (Terry) Ryals, and a host of friends who will miss her dearly. Her legacy will live on in the many lives she touched, and her memory will forever be a guiding light.

A celebration of Faye's life will be held on April 6, 2025, at Ivan Assembly of God Church, 202 Ivan Church Rd. Crawfordville FL, 32327, where friends and family can come together to share stories, offer prayers, and remember the extraordinary woman she was.

For those who wish to honor Faye, please deliver flower arrangements to Abbey Funeral Home by Thursday for the viewing. Alternatively, please contact a family member for the address to deliver flowers to her children.

Rest in peace, dear Faye. You will always be loved, and your memory will live on in our hearts forever. "Well done, good and faithful servant." (Matthew 25:23)
