“ She was such a God sent gift to my family when my children were young. Jean and I worked together at Little Lambs for years where she "loved on" kids! My youngest was born with CP and in order to get him the therapies he needed, I needed help with getting my oldest son from school. She picked up Patrick and cared for him in the afternoons until Nathan's therapy was finished and not once did she let me pay her, not even gas money. ((hugs)) to her family. She is surely in the arms of her divine creator.
