“ I was so fortunate to have such a beautiful, wise, loving and sweet lady to be my mother's sister and my Aunt Ginny. I have her in my heart forever. She bought my very first "dress up dress". I was two and the dress was red with a lot of lace and and three red satin under skirts. I remember her in every important event of our lives- standing behind us, standing beside us, and standing for us. I love you Aunt Ginny, we will meet again.
