

Wesley Leggett

December 27, 1956 - December 25, 2025

It is with deep sadness to announce that Wesley Raymond Leggett passed away peacefully on December 25, 2025. Wesley was born December 27, 1956, and lived in Tallahassee, Florida with his beloved wife Kellie and their yorkie-poo Mollie, which Wesley adored.

Wesley was a man with a big heart. He was loved and respected by all that knew him. He loved to shoot pool and go fishing. He was a strong man who fought for his life for several years.

He is survived by his loving wife, Kellie Leggett; mother, Dora Ammons (Buck); daughter, Kasey Leggett; brothers, Bill Leggett and Jack Leggett (Sherri); sister, Donna Hall (Ricky) and his granddaughter, Kaylie Whitaker.

Wesley will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ My handsome husband, you know that you are the love of my life. You fought so hard, my baby. I am beyond words with my sadness that you won't be coming home again, but my baby, you will always be in my heart always and forever. You are the best man, and I do mean man that I have ever met and had the opportunity to love and to marry and to be with you through sickness and in health. You are forever my man, my handsome husband, and the love of my life.
